WANT A POLICE MATRON ON DUTY AT THE JAIL

Woman's Christian Temperance Union Will Ask the Legislature to Create Position.

If the efforts of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in Honolulu are availing a regularly employed police station matron will be placed on duty at the city jail to look after women prisoners. The need of such an official is said to be urgent. It was deemed proper to womankind, no matter how low she may have fallen in the social scale, that when she fell into the police net she should be ministered to by her own sex, rather than by the male police officers.

The matter was brought up at yesterday's meeting of the W. C. T. U., by Miss Whiteman. She broached the subject by stating that there should be a committee of the W. C. T. U. on social purity. She told of an incident one day when she saw the patrol wagon come to a certain corner in answer to a police summons. The policeman had in his charge two white women, one of whom was scantily clothed and the other's form was covered by a cloak. They were intoxicated. The men tumbled them into the wagon. They were not gently handled but thrown into the wagon without formality or much regard for their sex. In this condition, and in an open wagon, exposing the inmates to public gaze, the women were conveyed throughout the streets to the police station. No woman matron was there. Only men handled the drunken women.

A detective had told Miss Whiteman that the women in question were morally bad and were an injury to other women with whom they came in contact. But even the kindly ministrations of a police matron might be of benefit to them.

Mrs. J. M. Whitney, the president, proposed that the W. C. T. U. take hold the proposal and urge the passage of a law providing for the employment of a police matron.

Mrs. Jordan read a very interesting letter from Miss Kara Smart, now in Japan, working for the W. C. T. U. Miss Smart is well-known to religious workers in Honolulu.

The writer drew a graphic picture of Japan as it is today in the midst of war. She said at the time she wrote, December, there were 50,000 Japanese sick and wounded soldiers in the hospitals at home. She worked among them, giving them pamphlets on the W. C. T. U. work and trying to show them the evil effects of intemperance. Immorality, she said, had created great havoc among the soldiers at the front. Much disease was due to drinking intoxicating liquors. The writer said she too had a Port Arthur to take, as well as the Japanese soldiers, and this Port Arthur was that of intemperance and immorality.

She appealed to the local union for financial assistance, and $25 was voted from the treasury funds to be forwarded to Miss Smart.

Mrs. Ryder spoke of the work among the children of Kakaako. She felt that much good was being done among them, a sentiment which was echoed by Mrs. Whitney.

Mrs. Whitney then passed copies of The Friend among the ladies, in which is contained Senator Dickey's proposed local option law. This was read slowly and now and then certain points were discussed, the W. C. T. U. favoring the law as it stands.

An Enjoyable Outing.

DISTANT RUMBLE OF A POLITICAL STORM

As this seems to be the season for changing United States ambassadors and ministers abroad would it not be timely to suggest the name of Governor Carter to the President as an available man for minister to one of the Russian posts? He could even perform the duties of Czar without overworking himself.

After seventeen years faithful service in the police department of this Territory Sheriff L. A. Andrews has been relieved from duty and will retire to private life. He has made a good officer and would have undoubtedly continued in office under the administration of anyone but Governor Carter.

It is a well known fact that Mr. Desha was asked by the governor to accept the position in Hilo when he refused to appoint him deputy jailer in Honolulu. The request last week that the Young Men's Republican Club endorse Mr. Desha was a subterfuge under these circumstances and a mere bluff at pandering to the wishes of this supposedly sensible organization. In entering to the club, or pretending to do so, the governor entirely overlooked the Republican party here which is represented by the district committee. He ignored the Board of Trade which is presumed to represent the mercantile interests of this part of the district and settled in the old rut of consulting Carter first, last and all the time. Mr. Desha was appointed because of his experience in the postoffice at Honolulu and when Mr. Desha's commission expires some other Honolulu resident will get the place for the same reason for at the rate the governor has been making selections Hilo will never have anyone capable of filling an appointment. Had the Young Men's Republican Club stood pat and declined to endorse anyone but a resident for the place the club would have learned to what extent its influence goes. In return for the club's endorsement of Desha, Carter promised to see that Hawaii received generous appropriations from the Legislature. Can Carter deliver the goods? Word comes from the capital that he may not get the influence of a majority of the members at the price of a dinner at the Young Hotel. Governor Carter usurps the right granted to the citizens of every community on the mainland, the right of a voice in the matter of appointments to office, a right that has been recognized by every state, federal and territorial administration of the United States except during the reconstruction days in the south, and it would appear that now is a good time to protest to Washington. The people here have good grounds and the matter, small as it may appear to Governor Carter, may as well be brought to the attention of President Roosevelt so that when other federal appointments are to be given out the people may have an opportunity to express their wishes as to the desirability of candidates.—Hawaii Herald.
